

Historic Gloria Dei (Old Swedes')
Preservation Corporation

MARCH 16, 2015 BOARD MINUTES

Meeting start: 5:30 pm

Candace Roberts, Chair- presiding

Attendees: Ann Blackstone, Peggy Buescher, Jerry Buescher, Tom Daley, John Moritz, Mark Roberts, Alan Segal, Joy Segal, Bob Stewart, Kim-Eric Williams, Jeanette Woehr

1. The consent agenda and minutes were approved.
2. Finance committee report is attached. The report was presented by Mark Roberts and was approved.
Funds were approved to purchased 2 outdoor banners and perhaps the sandwich sign to advertise Colonial Day
3. Tom Daley provided an update to the grounds report. Tom will provide a very high level of budget estimates to assist with fund-raising efforts. The detailed pricing is underway.
4. Alan Segal and Bob Stewart will continue work on the 501c3 status
5. Ann Blackstone reported on our connection with Friends of Nebinger.
6. Colonial Day – May 2, 2015 report, Jerry Buescher and Candy Roberts
 - Jeanette Woehr has agreed to Chair Costumes Acquisition
 - Jeanette provided some photos from Colonial Days past. These will be used to create a decorative poster and for the web site.
 - Raffle items – to be finalized by March 31
 - Jazz Party for 12: Gourmet dinner for 12 at Riverside Hall on a Sunday (5pm-8pm), with 4-piece jazz ensemble. Date to be mutually agreed. (Donated by Alan and Joy Segal , with cooks Jerry Buescher and Candy Roberts) $2,000 value
 - A night on the town package: 2 days and one night at the Independence Park Hotel, gift certificate to Ritz Theater Chain, Dinner for 2 at Supper Restaurant (donated by Quantum Think and Supper Restaurant) $500 value
 - 12 bottle case of wine selected by Moore Brothers Wine Company. (Greg Moore, Sommelier and General Manager of the renown Le Bec-Fin, and his brother David, a prominent wine retailer) (To be confirmed) $200 value
 - Get your Kitchen Gadgets: A basket of delightful and highly useful kitchen tools! (Donated by Tom Daley) $ TBD
 - Dance Sleepover Party for pre-teen girls. Up to 20 pre-teen girls can enjoy a sleepover party at Riverside Hall on a Friday night at 6pm through Saturday morning at 9am. Includes dance instruction, a dance-theme movie, a goodie bag and light snacks. The winning family can bring additional food and beverage items. Date to be mutually agreed. (To be confirmed) $800 value

Historic Gloria Dei (Old Swedes')
Preservation Corporation

- Other sleepover ideas include Battleship NJ and Franklin Institute (cost for this is $50/child)
- Other raffle ideas: Dinner for 6, Hidden Philadelphia Tour, pre-teen co-ed sleepover
- On Sunday, April 12, following coffee hour, Candy Roberts, Jill Duink, plus any children we can attract, will canvas the surrounding neighborhood to sell raffle tickets. All are welcome!
- Tom Daley suggested we offer a free raffle ticket for a 42" television. The winner must be present to win. Quantum Think will donate up to $250 of the cost of the television.
 - Candy will give out raffle tickets at the JC Superstar concert at the entrance. We will give out tickets at the Delaware Swedish Colonial Day on April 18. We will offer the free raffle ticket to all we encounter to purchase the main raffle tickets.
 - We will hand out raffle tickets at the South Street Fair that is occurring on May 2nd to draw these attendees to our program
 - We will hand out raffle tickets to the QVNA House Tour attendees who will begin their tour at Gloria Dei on May 2nd to draw them to our event after their tour.
- Bob Stewart agreed to contact PNC Bank regarding a sponsorship.
- Alan Segal will continue to solicit the Coast Guard and Steel Workers Union.
- Ann Blackstone will continue to solicit restaurant gift certificates. Positano Coast was suggested.
- Jerry Buescher is seeking additional volunteers for Colonial Day. There are many areas to help out!
- We are still collecting items for the raffle until March 30.
- We collecting items for the silent auction through April 20.

7. Adjourn: 6:30

Thanks to Candy Roberts for dinner.

Next meeting: April 13, 5:30-7pm